The finish line is proposed to be out the front of the Port Lincoln Wharf.

The boats will then make their way to the marina and into their berths (this will be a hive of activity as the boats arrive throughout the day).

Marina entrance location & return of Trackers

First time visitors, please refer to 'mudmap' of approximate location of marina entrance under "Other Information" at the end of the Sailing Instructions.

A map of berth locations will be provided on the night of the brief.
